Annual Easter Egg Hunt Announced

For Immediate Release

Woonsocket, RI –Mayor Leo T. Fontaine in conjunction with the Woonsocket Parks & Recreation Department announces the annual Easter egg and candy hunt on Sunday, March 28th (rain date Sunday, April 3rd). The event will be held at Barry Memorial Field. Please be there by 12:45 p.m.—The event will start at 1:00 p.m. sharp! All children who are Woonsocket residents are urged to attend.

Children will search for eggs and candy in 3 age groups:

1. Ages 4 and under
2. Ages 5, 6, & 7
3. Ages 8, 9, & 10

Children who find wooden eggs can redeem them for a large prize. A free raffle follows the hunt. Come early and visit with the Easter Bunny.

This event was made possible by donations from local businesses and local employee unions who have also generously donated their time.
